

Meeting Chat Transcript

Don: Bates

18:31

Evening: Guys

Buck: Bartolik

18:31

Anyone: else not hear anything?

Scott: Lewis

18:31

I'm: hearing them.

Don: Bates

18:32

I: can hear fine as well

Buck: Bartolik

18:32

Got: it.

Branden: Keith Thomas

18:33

I: can barely hear.

Scott: Lewis

18:33

Hmm,: strange. I hear it very clearly

Miguel

18:34

I: can hear clearly

Chuck: Hickey

18:40

Joel:: The new website looks great.

Rob: Scavo

18:40

Good: job Joel

ben: zibton brooke

18:42

thanks,: Joel!

Nate: Barrows

18:42

I: just now learned about the CFOA website, I am a new official. I passed the tests for mechanics and playoffs on Arbiter, but now I am trying to pass the video test on CFOA. When I click on the link to take the test on the CFOA website, nothing comes up. Is it because I just got registered?

John: Conklin

18:43

Nate,: register as a new user.

Chuck: Hickey

18:44

Never: leave the kicker and go to the sideline unless you have 11 K players.

Don: Bates

18:45

you: beat me to that Chuck!

Eric: DePalo

18:45

Don't: forget to keep an eye on the kicker after the kick

Chuck: Hickey

18:45

BJ: is last to put up arm. He has 11. Things are clear. We're ready to go then.

Debra: S

18:47

make: sure they are kicking a legal ball

Randy: Hodges

18:47

To: start a half, don't give the ball to the kicker without 12:00 on the clock.

Chuck: Hickey

18:47

Do: not officiate air.

John: Treacy

18:48

Look: for players in chase mode.

Scott: Lewis

18:49

Always: "expect" an onside kick. If you expect it every time you'll never be caught off-guard

Danny: Reed

18:49

U: can get to the 10 or deeper if the kick is deep. Pay attention in Pre game

Michael: Johnson

18:50

make: sure there are the correct number of players on either side of the kicker, no one behind the 35 accept the kicker

Chuck: Hickey

18:53

Correct.: Do not leave until you have 11.

Chuck: Hickey

18:58

Should: we be rethinking mechanics and putting U and H on pylons on FKs?

Pat: Dowling

18:58

or: should we think of U going to the 10.

Scott: Lewis

18:58

I: don't think we need to. That puts them really far back for relatively rare situations where the pylon is threatened. I personally prefer to have HL and U where they are for better return coverage

Scott: Lewis

18:58

Maybe: U to the 10 so he can get back

Buck: Bartolik

18:59

Agree: with Scott

Steve: B

18:59

As: U I am sliding down from the 20 as the ball is coming closer to my sideline or Goal line

John: Treacy

19:00

Thoughts: on B coming into middle of field after K passes to give that look from the middle

Buck: Bartolik

19:00

About: leaving us at the 20 -- much more likely to have cheap stuff between the 20 -35.

Randy: Hodges

19:00

No,: its not

Scott: Lewis

19:00

Intentionally: going out of bounds is IP on the R team (but it's also kick out of bounds). But I need to know 100% sure that it was for sure intentional

Randy: Hodges

19:00

if: he intentionally goes oob and touches the ball, it is illegal participation.

Buck: Bartolik

19:01

KCI

Scott: Lewis

19:01

rather,: intentionally going out of bounds and then participating

Scott: Lewis

19:01

but: when in doubt, I'm going to go with "inadvertently going out of bounds"

John: Conklin

19:01

B: to the middle after kick will be a mechanics change for 7 official mechanics this year in the playoffs, but NOT in 5-man. We don't have enough officials to have one moving from SL to middle of field and officiating at the same time.

Chuck: Hickey

19:03

Pregame: that with your kick returner on day games. Tell him when in doubt, you will kill it.

Scott: Lewis

19:03

on: those days, the covering official should just communicate

Scott: Lewis

19:03

if: shielding the eyes might be a thing, just say "if you shield your eyes, don't wave your hand".

Branden: Keith Thomas

19:04

The: question above that Randy and Scott discuss, this play seems to not be settled. Where is the ball placed if R obviously goes out of bounds and touches the ball on kick return in order to attempt to make it out of bounds?

Chuck: Hickey

19:04

Agree: with Scott. You can shield your eyes. Don't give any motion of hands/arms.

Matt: Linville

19:05

For: the test just the playoff is exp tonight right all of them

Matt: Linville

19:05 *or

John: Conklin

19:05

Correction: - B will start in middle of field with kicker in 7-official mechanics during playoffs.

Scott: Lewis

19:05

Brandon: - it would be a double-foul by rule.

Scott: Lewis

19:05

But: in 25 years I've never seen a player go out of bounds so intentionally that it was obvious

John: Conklin

19:06

Same.

Brandon: Keith Thomas

19:06

lol: happened to me twice in a game 2 years ago.

Miguel

19:07

when: in doubt bring it out

John: Conklin

19:08

"when: in doubt bring it out" would be the coach's instruction to the player, but when in doubt as the R the kick crossed the GL and it is a touchback.

Ryan: Bigley

19:10

So: once the kicker goes beyond 10 yards, he becomes the only player allowed to kick the ball?

Scott: Lewis

19:11

Correct.: It's actually 5 yards (in this case, he was just farther back), but if any player is past that 35, that player is the ONLY one who can kick it

Ryan: Bigley

19:11

Got: it. But if all 11 are within 5 yards, then any of them can kick it?

Scott: Lewis

19:11

Correct

Ryan: Bigley

19:12

Awesome.: Thanks!

Jim: Boyd

19:13

That: was great Kirk. I got a lot out of it. Thanks for your thorough presentation

Buck: Bartolik

19:13

Thanks: Kirk!

Isaac: Eisenbarth

19:13

Yes: thanks Kirk

Matt

19:14

No: they have to have 4 on each side of kicker.

John: Madrid

19:14

Thanks: Kirk

Scott: Lewis

19:15

Matt: - good point. Any of them can kick it, but we need to make sure when they do, that there are 4 on each side. (IE, one on the end could come in and kick it if he crosses over to make it legal). The "4 on each side" is applied at the time of the actual kick

Kirk: Russell

19:16

have: george just call in

Matt: Linville

19:22

@George: try turning volume down it might be the same device or if you have an external mic

Scott: Lewis

19:24

Just: as a note, a receiver in the area doesn't necessarily automatically make it legal. It can usually be a strong mitigating factor, but there is still some judgment involved as to whether the QB was just dumping the ball.

ben: zibton brooke

19:26

talk: about false start vs encroachment.. try stick your side of the center?

Buck: Bartolik

19:27

BOTH: side can encroach before the snap.

Don: Bates

19:36

There: is no need to be quick with a touchdown signal.

Kirk: Russell

19:43

Joel: - I have one more play that needs to be shown before John wraps up.

Ryan: Bigley

19:45

Is: that our official position? In the rare case that they actually do this, we're flagging them for Illegal Participation. Correct?

Cody: D Dilka

19:49

where: do we find the game reports?

Kirk: Russell

19:51

Stop: putting "the crew did a great job....." in the game report

Matt: Linville

19:51

Thank: you

Chuck: Hickey

19:51

<https://chsaa.news/tools/officials/forms/game-reports/football/>

Scott: Sommerfeld

19:51

Thank: you

Isaac: Eisenbarth

19:51

Thank: you

Jim: Beers

19:51

Thanks: fellas

Josh: Denboske

19:51

Thank: you!!

Ryan: Bigley

19:51

Thanks: all!

Eric: DePalo

19:51

Nice: work, guys. Thank you.

Boris: Rivera

19:51

Thank: you!!

Debra: S

19:51

good: night. Nice job everyone.

L.A.: Rohling

19:51

thank: you

Heather: Dunham

19:51

thank: you